

which commission and return are recorded in liber L. W., number seven, folios 506, 507 and 508 of the records in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for Somerset county, and the commissioners may enlarge the same from time to time, as they may think necessary.

1878, ch. 209.

210. It shall be the duty of the commissioners of the said town to prepare a statement showing the several amounts received by them from all sources, and the several amounts disbursed by them during the preceding year, together with the amount of assessable property within the limits of said town, and the annual rate of tax; which statement, signed by the said commissioners, they are required to publish annually, on or before the first day of May, in one of the newspapers printed in the said town.

PUBLICATION OF LAWS.

1865, ch. 31, sec. 5. 1870, ch. 105.

211. It shall not be necessary to publish the public local laws relating to Somerset county in all the newspapers of said county.

REGISTER OF WILLS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 19, sec. 137.

212. The register of wills of Somerset county, in the recess of the orphans' court of said county, may pass any account or claim against the estate of a deceased person for any amount not exceeding one hundred dollars, and on the return of any inventory of the personal estate of a deceased person, may pass an order for a sale of the property contained therein.

REVENUE AND TAXES.

1880, ch. 207. 1888, ch. 137.

213. The county of Somerset is divided into four collection districts, as follows: The first to be composed of Princess Anne, Dublin, Fairmount and Mount Vernon election districts; the second, of St. Peter's, Dames' Quarter and Tangier election districts; the third, Brinkley's, Lawson and Crisfield election districts; and the fourth, of Smith's Island election district.